

I do solemnly swear that this writing contains the true and correct will and testament of the within named Margaret James deceased, so far as I know or believe; & that I will well & truly execute the same, by paying back the debts, & then the legacies contained in the said will, as far as her goods & chattels will thereunto extend & the law charge me. & that I will make a true & perfect inventory of all such goods & chattels - So help me God.

Witness my hand & seal
this 9th Jan. 1854
Geo. W. Mullenoco.

Richard O. Arnold.

Will of Catharine Healy et. Fidei

In the name of God Amen!
I Catharine Healy alias Farley do make this my last will & Testament.

I bequeath to my daughter Mary Farley, and my daughter Margaret Ann Healy all monies, legacies, debts, real or personal estate to which I am now entitled, or which by will and or testament I may hereafter be entitled to.

To execute this my last will & testament I appoint as executor the Rev. S. F. O'Neils, his heirs & assigns. I likewise request him to be the guardian of my daughter Mary Farley, and as much as possible to have her brought up with the sisters of our family at Mercy or Fairmount for her education.

Catharine ^{her} Farley
Mark

Signed, sealed, & delivered in our presence as witnesses
this day 1853
at Fort. Ga.

Denis Healy
Henry McNamee
James Healy

State of Georgia } Court of Ordinary for the County of Chatham County }
1853
Present, Geo. W. Mullenoco Ordinary for the County of Chatham -

Personally appeared Denis Healy a subscribing witness to the annexed instrument, purporting to be the Last will & testament of Catharine Healy of Chatham County deceased, who being duly sworn deposes & saith that he was present & did see the said instrument of writing duly executed by the said Catharine. And deponent further saith that the said Catharine at the time of executing the said instrument of writing was to the best of deponent's knowledge & belief of sound disposing mind memory & understanding, & that Denis Healy, Theodore Healy and James Healy & Henry McQuinn in the presence of each other & of the said Catharine and at her request signed their names as witnesses to the due execution of the same.

Dennis Healy

Sworn before me
this 7th day Nov. 1853
Pro. Mr. Miller
O. C. C.

I do solemnly swear that this writing contains the true last will of the within named Catharine Healy alias Healy deceased, so far as I know or believe; And that I will well & truly execute the same, by paying first the debts & then the legacies contained in the said will as far as her goods & chattels will thereto extend & the law charge me; & that I will make a true & perfect inventory of all such goods & chattels. So help me God!

J. F. O'Neill

Sworn before this
14th day Nov. 1853
Pro. Mr. Miller

Will of Margaret McDonald

Savannah Chatham County, Georgia W. F.
January 1. 1853.

In the name of God Amen!

I Margaret McDonald widow of the late James McDonald deceased, do make this my last will & testament, revoking all other wills & testaments heretofore made by me -

Item one. I wish all my lawful debts to be paid in due time after my demise.

Item two. I will that my body shall receive a decent & Christian burial.

Item three. I will that a decent & plain monument be erected at my expense - over the remains of my dear husband James McDonald & myself.