Jellulford Marsh of the City aforesaid being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do make and publish this as my last will and testament, hereby expressly revoking any former will by me made. First - I direct the payment of all my just debts and a settlement of my professional business - as soon as the same can be done - Second - I am disposing of my Estate I wish my son Isaac M. Marsh to manage and I appoint Emily Georgianna Pepper executor.

bring into Hotch pot all that I have advanced to them during my life time; after this is done I wish my Estate, except my Law Library and office fixtures which are hereinafter otherwise disposed, to be equally divided between my wife and my son and daughter aforesaid my wife share to vest in my executors hereinafter mentioned in trust for her sole and separate use and behoof free from the debts and contracts of any other husband with whom she may in future intermarry for and during the term of her natural life, and in case she shall ~~have~~^{leave} a child or children or the issue thereof in life at her death then in remainder to such child or children or the issue thereof in fee simple & in failure of such child or children or issue thereof to my said wife living at her death - I give and bequeath her part or share of my Estate to my said son and daughter equally between them. That portion of my Estate that will under this my will be set apart as my said daughter's share - I direct to be, and become vested in my ~~estate~~^{estate} executors hereinafter named in trust for the sole and separate use and behoof of my said daughter for and during the term of her natural life, free from the debts or contracts of her present husband or of any husband with whom she may in future intermarry, and from and after her death, then in trust for her children now born or to be hereafter born share and share alike, until the eldest of said children shall marry or shall arrive at the age of twenty one years and when and as each of said children arrives at the age of twenty one years or more, then in trust to convey to such child so arriving at said age or marrying the share to which he or she shall be entitled as aforesaid, And in case any one or more of the children of my said daughter shall die during the life of my said daughter, leaving a child or children in life then my wish is that said child or children, shall take such part, as its parent would have taken had it survived its mother - If my son in law survive his wife in trust to pay him the issues thereof for the support of her children, until the time of division arrives - Third it is my wish that in making a division of my servants, Niece Kelly, Mariah and her children may be permitted to be put to the one that they will prefer and be appraised at a moderate valuation - I would not have families separated in making said division more than can be avoided - Fourth I do not desire or wish that my Law Library and office fixtures shall be sold, but that the same shall be retained for my son, or my son in law the husband of my said daughter, should they ^{be} separated, and should they not practice Law, then to be retained until one of my grand sons shall practice Law, and I give and bequeath the same to whichever of the persons designated to wit my son my son in Law or my grand son shall first practice Law, until one of them shall practice Law, my wish is, that my Partner John M. Simmons Esq., shall be permitted to use said Law Library and office fixtures free of any charge, he taking care of them, and keeping them insured. Fifth - I do authorize my executor to sell at public or private sale any and all my Lands that do not lie in the Counties of Chatham or Burke, and should it become necessary to sell any one or more slaves the same may be sold at either public or private sale. Lastly I nominate and appoint my wife, Emily Pellam Esq., and my son in Law, James M. Pepper and my son Isaac Mulford Marsh Executors of this my Last will and Testament and trustees to carry out the trusts aforesaid - In witness my whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 1st day of August 1855, and declared this to be my Last will and Testament.
