Court of Ordinary Present - John Pilbo Esq., Ordinary for the County of Chatham. Personally appeared Daniel H. Stewart subscribing Witness to the annexed instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Margaret Carvunaugh late of Chatham County, deceased who, being duly sworn, deposes and faith that he was present, and did see the said instrument of writing duly executed by the said Margaret Carvunaugh at the time of executing said instrument of writing, was, to the best of deponent's knowledge and belief, of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding; and that he, Daniel H. Stewart (the deponent) and Thomas H. Wilson and A. Boshert in the presence of each other, and of the said Margaret Carvunaugh and at her request, signed their names as witnesses to the execution of the same,

John Pilbo C. C. C.

I do solemnly swear that this writing contains the true last Will of the within named Margaret Carvunaugh, deceased, so far as I know or believe; and that I will well and truly execute the same, by paying first the debts and then the legacies contained in the said Will, as far as her goods and chattels will thereto extend and the law charge me; and that I will make a true and perfect inventory of all such goods and chattels - So Help me God -

In the name of God, Amen. I, George M. Waldburg being of sound and disposing mind. But suffering under a disease which admonishes me of a future life do make this my last Will and Testament revoking any previous instrument which I may have made - I give and bequeath to my wife, Mrs. M. Waldburg, Jacob Waldburg Esq. all my property real and personal and mixed for himself his heirs and assigns forever, requesting him to exercise a liberal and generous feeling towards the support of our sister, who Infer to his own impulses of kindness - As to my negroes I may have some peculiar impressions - It looks upon them as belonging to the Great African family, and probably I may have treated them with too much indulgence! But I trust that same lenity may be extended to them, and if ever sold not to be separated where their affections are interested
