 City of Savannah } I Mary Ann Stafford of the said City of Savannah, being of Sound Mind and disposing memory do make publick and declare this my Last Will and Testament hereby revoking all Wills heretofore at any time made by me
 After the payment of all of my Just debts and funeral expenses, I dispose of my Property as follows - First - I give devise and bequeath unto the Trustees of Trinity Church for the Methodist Episcopal Church South in Savannah and to their Successors and assigns forever, my Negro Slaves Zea, Sonon and his wife Rachael, Madeline and her three children Edward Margaret, and John, Phillis and her two children Peter and Abby upon the following conditions and trusts viz in Trust to use and apply the income arising from the hire of said Slaves or the proceeds of the sales thereof to be invested to the maintenance of the Institute kept at the said Trinity Church, as to the said Trustees may seem proper, but it is my Will and I direct that in no event shall the Corpus of the Trust fund be used or applied to any purpose when or as it may be diminished. Secyd, It is my Will and I direct that my Executors hereinafter named send my Woman Maria and her son Charles and such other children she may have at the time of my death to such free State or Country as she may elect, should she desire to go, and I charge upon that portion of my Estate herein bequeathed in Trust to the Trustees of Trinity Church for the Methodist Episcopal Church South in Savannah the expenses of sending my said Slave Maria and her said children to the State or Country to which she may choose to go. But should my said Slave Maria
