

Georgia
Chatham County }

In the name of God, Amen! I have this. Ann Williams, wife of William Shadrack Williams, being at this time extremely low from sickness, but of sound and disposing mind and memory, and consider-ful of the dispensations of an all-wise Providence, do make this my last Will and Testament, trusting in a glorious resurrection through the merits of my Savor -

First. - I direct that all my just debts be paid by my Executrix as soon after my death as may conveniently be done.

Secondly. - Being possessed of personal property of considerable value consisting principally of Slaves, I give devise and bequeath the same unto my friend Mr John Brummingham and Mr William Rogers, and to the survivor of them, and to the executors and Administrators of the survivors of them, I do Trust to and for the use, benefit, and behoof, of my beloved Mother Louisa Morrison and Charlotte D Taylor, both of the State of South Carolina, during their natural lives, and in-trust for the survivor of them during her natural life, subject nevertheless to the payment such and every year, of the sum of Three hundred Dollars to my husband William Shadrack Williams, in whose favour the said property shall be held and bound for that amount in the hands of the said Trustees or surviving Trustees, and his Executors and Administrators, for and during his natural life.

Thirdly. From and the death of my said Mother and my said Aunt, I further devise give and bequeath my said property subjected to the annuity aforesaid, should Mr Williams survive them, to the Trustees of the Independent Presbyterian-Church in Savannah forever -

Fourthly. After my debts shall all have been paid I desire and direct that three of my faithful servants, named London, Rose, and Abby, and also Rose's child, Anna, be allowed by my Trustees to leave Georgia for Africa, or some other country, as in one of the Northern States, where all elected, and where they may have their freedom, if they choose to go, their expenses are to be paid out of the trust money - if not, they are to continue of her slaves, all her slaves shall be in the hands of the Lord, her daughter Anna I give devise and bequeath to my Aunt Miss Harriet R. Taylor.

Fifthly. - I give devise and bequeath Jane and her child Elizabeth to John Rogers the son of - William Rogers, with an express request that she be not removed from Savannah.

Sixthly - I give and bequeath the use of my servant Henry, about six years old now, as a body servant to my husband Mr William Thaddeus Williams during his natural life, to rest upon him but not as his property, and after Mr Williams death I give the said boy to Mr John Cunningham, or, if Mr Cunningham be then dead, to Mr Cunningham's right heir forever

Seventhly - As some of my slaves have husbands or wives who may in time be removed from Savannah or elsewhere where they may be, it is my desire and direction that, if my said slaves desire it, my Trustees sell the same to go with their husbands or wives, vesting the proceeds of sale of them so desiring, in other property on the same bases and trusts.

Eighthly. - All my household furniture, of what ever kind, I give and bequeath to my Mother and Aunt before mentioned, absolutely for themselves for ever.

Ninthly - I nominate constitute and appoint Mr John Cunningham and Mr William Rogers, to be the executors of this my last Will and Testament.

Done at Savannah this twenty third day of December in the year eighteen hundred and forty eight.

Marta Ann Williams

Whereas S. Martha Ann Williams, did on the twenty third day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty eight whereas I am desirous of altering and changing some of the provisions of the said instrument, and adding other I therefore make and publish this Codicil to my will First - My beloved husband, William Thomas Williams, having departed this life, the charge upon my property in the second item of my will has failed; I grant, order, and direct that the trustees in said item named shall hold the said property subject to an annual payment of the sum each and every year for and during her natural life, of Two hundred Dollars to my friend Miss Jane Cunningham, of this City of Savannah to be a charge upon the said property fully as I designed the payment to Mr Williams to be Second.

I revoke and annul as much of the fourth item, of my will as relates to Rose and Elsey, and Rose's daughter Anna; and I will order and direct that Anna become absolutely the property of Miss Elizabeth R Taylor upon my death, to whom I give and bequeath her; and I order and direct that Rose and Elsey, and Rose's younger child born since the date of my will and believed to be named soon, shall with any issue born hereafter become joint and parcel of my property disposed of in the second item of my will and subject to the provisions of that item.

Third - I revoke the bequest of Jane and her child Elizabeth to John Rogers; and I hereby give, devise, and bequeath to her and her future issue to the said John Rogers forever. Jane and Elizabeth to be subject to the provisions of the second item of my will.

Fourth - I give devise and bequeath my servant Henry, mentioned in the sixth item of my will to my friend Mr William Rogers, forever.

Fifth - I hereby revoke and annul my appointment in my will of Mr John Cunningham as Trustee and as Executor, and I appoint nominate and constitute Mr William Rogers to be sole Trustee and sole Ex. - tor.

Sixth. Having become entitled by the death of my late husband Mr Williams, to certain negro slaves twelve, more or less, in number, I hereby give, devise and bequeath the said negro slaves and the flocks to the State of Georgia now of Florida, - letter to my late husband in Court to and for Mr Thomas Williams children now living and deceased after to be born to have forever, it having been a wish expressed to me by my husband that I should do so; this request subject nevertheless to the further that the said property shall not be delivered over until the lawful debts of Mr Williams estate shall have been first discharged by his Administrator, and until the three following just claims against Mr Williams, my late husband, shall have been first paid and discharged by my Executor, who is hereby authorised and required to pay the same out of the proceeds of their labor, to wit, One hundred Dollars in favor of Mrs Ellen Williams, of Chatham County, widow; Thirtynine Dollars in favor of Mr Stephen B Williams and the further sum of One hundred and twenty five Dollars in favor of Drt Benjamin White of Millage ville.

Sixty I nominate constitute and appoint Mr William Rogers to be the sole Executor of my last Will and Testament, and of this Codicil thereto.
