

Off a Count of Probate Holden at Savannah written and for the District of Berlin on the 3rd day of January A D 1834.

In the Circuit Court of Fulton County Georgia

The last will and testament of Achel Wells late of Berlin in this District, deceased, is exhibited in Court by Charles H. Bootham of the town and county of Halford in this state, one of the Executors therein named, and having been duly proved is by this Court approved and ordered to be recorded and kept on file, Said Executor accepts the trust. The said will and Testament is as follows viz:

I Achel Wells of the City of Savannah in the State of Georgia do make and declare this my last will and testament -

After payment of my debts and charges I dispose of my estate in the following manner - I give and devise unto my beloved wife Mary A. Wells all my real estate which lies in the said City of Savannah and the State of Connecticut, whether the same be owned by me in severalty or in common with others to her and to her heirs and assigns forever -

Also I give to my said wife all my stock or interests in the following companies and concerns - The New York and Savannah Steam Navigation Co. and The Home Insurance Co. both established in the city of New York - Bank of Savannah established in the said city of Savannah - Augusta And Maynesboro Rail Road Co. chartered in Georgia - Steamer Sammole registered at Savannah.

I give to Charles H. Bootham of Halford Connecticut and Henry Brigham of Savannah Georgia and the survivors of them and their successors as hereinafter provided for, the sum of fifteen thous and dollars, upon trust to pay the interest, dividends and income thereof to my said wife annually during her life, and at her decease to pay over to Lucy S. daughter of my late half sister Hannah H.
Seller. the one third part of the principal and of the advance thereon if any such there be over and above the annual proceeds paid to my wife as aforesaid, and the residue to divide equally between Wells Jr. - William Phillips and Sophia, son of my said late half sister, and if any of the said children shall die before my said wife and before such division no widow, having issue and issue to receive the greatest share - but if there be no issue then such share to be divided equally among the survivors -

I also give to each of the children aforesaid daughter and sons of my said late half sister, one thous and dollars to be paid over within twelve months after my decease -

I give to each of the children of my late half brother Thomas Wells Five hundred Dollars - The above of those who shall be of the full age of twenty-one years at my decease to be paid over within twelve months thereafter -

The slaves of those not of age to be paid into the hands of the husband of my said late half sister, Philip H. Sellers, to hold in charge and manage during the minority of said children - to pay my them annually the interest and income thereof, and the principal as they shall severally arrive at full age.

I also give to said Philip H. Sellers the sum of Five thous and dollars upon trust to pay the profits, interest and income thereof to my half sister Harriet H. Brown during her life - then to her children and the survivors of them in equal shares and after their decease to divide the principal equally among his own children here-inbefore named -

give to my negro slave George his freedom and I give into the hands of my wife the sum of three hundred dollars to bear his expenses to Liberia whenever he chooses to go - If by any chance my property should prove insufficient to discharge my debts and meet and satisfy all the provisions in this will, I direct that the estate hereinbefore bequeathed to my said wife shall not be encroached upon until all the other bequests be taken and exhausted but if it shall be more than sufficient (as I suppose will be the case) then all the rest, residue and remainder of my estate real and personal, I give and devise unto my beloved wife to belong to her, her heirs, executors and ministators and assigns forever.

In Case either of my said trustees Charles H.
Southam and Henry Brigham, shall decline to accept the trust to which they are herein before named, or shall die or become unable therefrom before the final execution of the same then the survivor shall have power to nominate by the Court of Probate of the District or County where my estate shall be in settlement to be a trustee in his place - And in case said Philip H. Bellows shall refuse to accept his said trust, or shall die or desire to be discharged therefrom before the final execution of the same and in case any vacancy shall at any time exist in respect to any of the foregoing trusts which has not been provided for herein, then the Court of Probate aforesaid shall have power to fill such vacancies and appoint new trustees who shall have full power to perform the aforesaid trusts -

It is my will that my said trustees shall not be required to give bonds to the Court of Probate where my estate shall be settled, for the performance of any of the trusts herein contained -

I hereby constitute and appoint my said wife together with the said trustees Charles F. Southwick and Henry Brigham to be my Executrix and Executors of this my last will and Testament -

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 23rd day of August A.D. 1853
