Savannah, Nov. 6, 1788.

MR. SMITH,

IN consequence of a dispute which arose between Mr. John Davison, of Cambleton, and myself, he has said some things of me through the heat of passion, which he now is sorry for, and to convince the world of the falsity and error that this man was in respecting his aspersing my character, be pleased to insert the following in your next Gazette.

EDMUND HICKS.

Mr. Edmund Bugg Hicks has lived with me a few months past, during which time he behaved himself in a very careful, honest and becoming manner. Given under my hand this fifth day of November 1788.

Attest.
NATHANIEL HICKS

JOHN DAVISON.
