of Georgia I John M. Morton, of said State & County being of sound mind and memory, and considering the uncertainty of this life, do therefore, make public and declare this to be my last will and testament; that is to say, first, after my burial expences, and all my lawful debts are paid and discharged, the residue of my estate, I give, bequeath and dispose of as follows. To wit:-

I give and bequeath to my three sisters Ida E. Bailey Laura McGeebrough, and Emily A. Morton, each a third interest in my farm on Chattooga River in the Connty aforesaid. containing two hundred and fifty-eight acres more or less, being lot number fifty eight (58) and part of lot number (57) eighty seven in the sixth District and fourth section, to be held by said legates, in jointure until partition of said farm be made which may be done by the consent of as many as may own two thirds of said farm which farm I make to the legates herein named at Forty-five hundred Dollars ($4500.00) & is to be held under the following conditions and restrictions viz that in the event either of my said sisters die leaving no heir of her body then interest in my estate, aforesaid goes to her surviving sister or Sisters of blood, & if they
