J. B. Hill Ordinary

In the name of God. Amen

I Charles Franklin of the State of Georgia and County of Floyd, being of sound mind and memory, and being mindful of the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death do this the twenty fifth day of February in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and Sixty one make this my last will and Testament in the following manner.

1st First - I resign my Soul in to the hands of Almighty God, hoping and believing in a remission of my sins by, & through the merits of Jesus Christ and my body I commit to the earth, to be buried at the discretion of my friends; and my worldly estate I give and bequeath as follows -

Firstly - I will that all my just debts and funeral expences be paid; Then give and bequeath to my daughter Fessia Ann Taylor wife of John Taylor and my only Girl named Catherine aged nine years & valued at four hundred and fifty Dollars, the sum to hold her, heirs and assigns.
The same not to be subject or made liable for the debts of her husband or other persons -

Then I give and bequeath to each of my other Children or their heirs, money or property to the amount of four hundred and fifty dollars each, provided my estate shall be worth that amount; if not each of my Children or their heirs are to receive an amount or share alike; And if my estate should be worth more than four hundred and fifty dollars for each Child then after each one has received the amount of four hundred and fifty (dollars) the remaining part is to be divided between all of my Children or their heirs, each receiving share and share alike -

I will that in case of the death of any of my Children, their heirs or offspring of their bodies shall inherit that part of my estate which their Fathers or Mothers (as the case may be) should have inherited, And in case any of such Legatees
