Know all men by these presents that I Isaac Hoose Farmer of the State and County aforesaid being old and infirm, yet of perfect Mind and Memory. Knowing also the uncertainty of human life have thought proper to make this my last will and testament And first of all I recommend my soul and body into the hands of Almighty God who gave them to me Secondly I desire all my true and just Debts to be paid out of my effects And Thirdly It is my will that all my property both real and personal to remain in the hands of my dearly beloved wife Mary Hoose during her life time and that my daughter Sarah D. Hoose shall be supported out of the proceeds of the annual crops of the place as long as she remains single and lives with her mother. After my wife's decease Should there my property then to be divided equally between her children with the exception that my daughter Sarah D. Hoose above mentioned receive twice as much as either of them if she is unmarried at the time and continues to observe to these and those above with the rest if she is married or marries in consequence of my selling during for a small pittance my life time estate to the property that I devised to my other two Children Mary and Elizabeth Hoose (legatees by a former wife) I bequeath unto them each [illegible] of my personal effects [illegible] revoke disannul and [illegible] by me [illegible] wills legacies
