Joseph Grishams
Last Will & Testament

In the name of God, Amen
I, Joseph Grisham of Cherokee County Georgia make this my last Will and Testament as follows. My soul I commedd to God who gave it, hopeing for salvation through the merit of Jesus Christ alone. My body to be buried wherever I may die; without any parade, and have no desire that any stone or monument be put to mark the place,

As my dear brother William Simpson of South Carolina appointed his only Executor and gave me discretionary power to apply the balance of his Estates to educate pious young men to preach the Gospel and the spread of the Gospel, And as I have but partially done what I intended, it is my Will and desire and I now so direct, That the balance which may be in my hands at the time of my death be applied as follows, A balance of Fifty Dollars to be paid to Thomas A Bell a domestic missionary for services up to the first day of July next, deducting Ten Dollars paid him in advance, and Ten Dollars in the hands of Singleton Sisks, That Two Hundred Dollars be paid to James C. Furman president of the Furman University for the benefit of W. R. Moody and such other young man as brother Furman may thing deserving and the balance that may be of the remainder of said Estate be divided into three equal parts, One part to be given to the Furman University of South Carolina, One part to the Indian Mission, and [illegible] to the African Mission

As to my [illegible] which God has best [illegible] is that they [illegible] of Birdwell Mill Seat, together with the Bridge across Hightower River and its appurtenances, about two acres of Land purchased of Elijah Mc Field, with that part of the tract of Land purchased from J. H. Gregory which is fenced up with the Homestead, from the River to the Road, all in the Twenty First District of the Second Section of said County.

Also, the following Negro Slaves, Ben and his Wife Sarah and all thier children, George and his Wife Charlotte and their children, York, John, Alfred, together with all my Horses Mules, Cattle Hoggs, Wagons Carriages, Plantation, Carpenters Shop and other Tools, and all the crops of Grain provender, with all the Household & Kitchen furniture on the premises, with the profits of the Bridge and Farm during her natural life, at her death she may dispose of any three of Bens children who may not have families to whoever she pleases. And should she at any time desire that all or any part of the Negroes be sold not herein otherwise directed, my Executors are directed to sell them and put the money at Interest until her death and should She desire it, a part or all the Interest of said Slaves to be paid to her in case the Plantation does not amply support her

Item 3d. To my son John Overton Grisham, I give and bequeath the following Negro Slaves, to wit, my carpenter named Davy & his Wife Jenny and their children Colonel, Emma Adolphus & the twins Aaron & Moses with the future increase of the females, to him, and his Heirs and Assigns forever

Item 4th. To my [illegible] Nancy [illegible]

I give [illegible]

as God has abundantly blessed his labours, it is my wish and daily prayer to the giver of every good and perfect gift that he may use his blessings with thankfulness

Item 6th To my Daughter Elisabeth Brown, I give and bequeath at the death of my Wife the following slaves, George and his Wife Charlotte, and their children Henry and an infant girl child, with the future increase of the females, to have and to hold to her and her Heirs and Assigns forever

Item 7th I give devise and bequeath to my brother William Grisham as Trustee for my Daughter Susan M. Brewster, wife of Patrick H. Brewster, and the children, as well those now in life as those hereafter to be born of her body by her present, or any future Husband to her and their sole and separate use free from the debts or incumbrances of any, and all other person or persons whomsoever subject to the reservations and trusts hereinafter expressed, and to and for the uses hereinafter mentioned, the following tract or parcel of Land, situate and being in the Twenty First District of the Second Section in said County, known as the Lots and parts of Lots following, to wit, No (182) One Hundred & Eighty Two except one or two acres which lies south of the Hightower River. Also Lots No (179) One Hundred and Seventy Nine (184) One Hundred and Eighty Four (250) Two Hundred and Fifty and that portion of Lot No (255) Two Hundred & Fifty Five which lies north of said River supposed to be twenty Acres also that portion of Lot No [illegible] and Fifty One which [illegible] supposed to con[illegible] that part of Lot [illegible] Eighty Four which [illegible] supposed to con[illegible] also Lot No (18[illegible]) One Hundred [illegible] also all that part of Lot No [illegible]

North of said River supposed to contain Three Acres, said Lots and parts of Lots comprising the Plantation whereon the said Patrick H Brewster now lives

And I expressly reserve to my heirs and assigns a right of way through said premises where the public road is now located which leads through said premises by my Bridge across the Etowah river, the said road to be kept continually open as a public road, and all persons to whom I have conveyed the right to cross on said bridge or the right of way heretofore, to continue to have it undisturbed, as wide as the law requires, as may be necessary for a public highway, as the road now runs through said premises. And I also expressly reserve the Grave Yard near the present residence of said Brewster, where his father and mother and other friends are buried, with as much ground as may be necessary for its protection, say a quarter of an acre – no reservation of the grave yard was made in the deed from Mrs Louise Brewster the Administratrix of Dr John Brewster deceased to. but I have no wish to disturb, desecrate or interrupt any thing about the grave yard or to place it in the power of others to do so, and I therefore relinquish any and all title that I may have acquired to said small spot of Ground occupied, by graves with room for decent monuments or inclosures of reasonable size to the estate of Dr John Brewster deceased as fully as if it had never been conveyed to me by said deed, as I set up no claim to it for myself or my Heirs. My said Brewster as Trustee as aforesaid is to have and to hold the premises [illegible]
