Codicil to
Nancy V Latimers
Will

Georgia
Wheeler County } In the name of God Amen.
I Nancy V Latimer being of sound mind and disposing memory, having on the 21st day of February 1878, made and declared my last will and testament, and having since the execution of said will, well considered all its provisions which as we they do express my true desire and indeed as to the disposition of my property and would fully and completely express my wishes, except upon the happening of an event or contingency for which I now desire to provide for "This my Codicil to my will made on the (21st) Twenty First day of February 1878

Item 1st The "event or contingency" above mentioned and alluded to refers solely to the fact dependent on my having a child born to me, In which event I desire to provide for said Child which is the object of this Codicil Now in the event I should have a child born to me, I desire that a sufficient amount of the proceeds of my property be applied and used for its (the childs) support and education during its minority that is until it arrives at Twenty One years of age, provided it should live that long, Should the child live to reach Twenty one years of age then my entire property to go to said Child, but Should said Child if born, die at any time before reaching the full age of Twenty one years then and in that event I desire and reaffirm my wish that the original will to which this Codicil is made executed as aforesaid on the Twenty First of February 1878, should stand, be of full force and effect and that my property should go to and be disposed of as therein provided

Item 2nd I desire it expressly understood and known by those who may after my death construe my will and this codicil that it is my wish, desire and will that in no event should Reuben Latimer my present Husband or his heirs, inherit in any way or in any event, any portion of my property by operation of law or otherwise

Signed Sealed declared and published by the Testatrix as her codicil to her last will and testament in the presence of the undersigned subscribing witnesses who Signed the same as witnesses at her request in her presence
