

Said Ordinary and his successors in office, we bind ourselves our heirs, executors, and administrators, in the whole, and for the whole sum, jointly and severally, and firmly, by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this seventh day of March eighteen hundred and fifty three.

The condition of the above obligation is such, that if the above bound Robert B. Allbutchen, Administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of David M. Allbutchen late of this County, deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular, the goods, chattels and credits, both real and personal, of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession or knowledge of the said Robert B. Allbutchen, or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him; and the same so made, do exhibit to the Court of Ordinary of said County, where he shall be thereunto required; and such goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law, and do make a just and true account of his doings and doings thereon, when required by the Superior Court, or Ordinary of said County, and all the rest of the goods, chattels and credits, both real and personal, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration, the same being first allowed by the Court of Ordinary of said County; shall deliver and pay to such persons, respectively, as are entitled to the same by law, and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased and the same be proved before the Court; and the executor obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said Robert B. Allbutchen, do, in such case, if required, render and deliver up the said letters of administration, Then this obligation to be void; else, remain in full force.
