should survive me I direct that all my lands I possess shall be divided into eight different lots or as many different lots as I have different tracts having a them be valued and partially by friends one chosen by my sons and one by my daughters and they two choose the other three and the different lots and put together and by my right sons namely Oliver George John Thomas William R Martin James Braden three of my sons getting the valuable lots are to make it up to the other sons of a like value in money out of their own money so that they shall all have consensual amount worth in hands and it is my will and wish is you shall have no part or something one with another take you take as you draw them and if they are in a place you do not wish to settle when you come of age tell them and say again and if any of my sons should die before they may and have some thing set in part to be sold and divided equally
