

law, to the said Ordinary and his successors in Office, the said executors, our heirs, executors, and administrators, in the whole, and for the whole sum, jointly and severally, and firmly, by these presents; sealed with our seals, and dated this the seventh day of March eighteen hundred and fifty three.

The condition of the above obligation is such, that if the above bound Jasper L Heath administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Lewis Taterfield late of this County, deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular, the goods, chattels and credits, both real and personal, of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession or knowledge of the said Jasper L Heath, or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him; and the same so made, do exhibit to the Court of Ordinary of said County, when he shall be thereunto required, and such good, chattels, and credits do well and truly administer according to law, and do make a just and true account of his actions and doing therein, when required by the superior court, or Ordinary of said County, and all the rest of the goods, chattels and credits, both real and personal, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration, the same being first allowed by the Court of Ordinary of said County, shall deliver and pay to such persons, respectively, as are entitled to the same by law, and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the said deceased, and the same be proved before the court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Jasper L Heath, do, in such case, if required, render and deliver up the said letters of administration, then the obligation to be void; else, remain in full force.

Jasper L Heath, principal, (L. L.)
John Heath, (J. A. Heath, son, (J. A.)
James Jordan, (J. J.)

Cherokee County, Georgia, 1854 same for date Dated.

We the State of Georgia, Cherokee County, do bind ourselves men by these presents, that we Jacob Stover, principal, and Middleton

A. Allison, sureties, do, for us, hold and firmly bound unto the Ordinary of said County, and his successors in office, in the just and full sum of twenty five hundred dollars, for the payment of which sum, to the said Ordinary and his successors in office, we bind ourselves, our heirs, executors, and administrators, in the whole, and for the whole sum, jointly and severally, and firmly, by these presents; sealed with our seals, and dated this fourth day of April eighteen hundred and fifty three.

The condition of the above obligation is such, that if the above bound Jacob Stover Administrator of the goods, chattels, and credits of John Stover late of this County, deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular, the goods, chattels and credits, both real and personal, of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands or possession or knowledge of the said Jacob Stover or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him, and the same do make, do exhibit to the Court of Ordinary of said County, when he shall be thereunto required; and such goods, chattels, and credits do well and truly administer according to law, and do make a just and true account of his actions and doing, theron, when required by the Superior Courts, or Ordinary of which County, and all the rest of the goods, chattels and credits, both real and personal, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration, the same being first allowed by the Courts of Ordinary of said County, shall deliver and pay to such persons, respectively, as are entitled to the same by law, and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved before the Court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said Jacob Stover do, in case, if required, ~~ende~~ and deliver up the said letters of administration, the same to be done else remain in full force.

Signed, sealed and acknowledged before me, James Jordan, Notary Public, this 4th day of April, 1854.