

Georgia
Clarke County
In the name of God. Amen
I Alfred Kinney of the County and State aforesaid being of sound mind and disposing memory do hereby publish and declare this to be my last will and testament I wish my just debts paid.

Almo 1st
Almo 2nd

I give and bequeath unto my beloved wife Cordelia Kinney all my estate, real personal and mixed for and during her natural life - restraining her however only from selling the lat in which I now live and giving her the power if necessary to sell any personal property she may choose to sell and after her death the estate left to be equally divided between the nearest of kin of myself and my wife.

Almo 3rd

I hereby appoint my wife Cordelia Kinney Executor of this my last will and testament herby exempting her from having inventory or appraisement made and from making any returns to the Court.
My witnesses whereof I the said Alfred Kinney have hereto set my hand and affixed my seal this right day of April 1876.

Signed, sealed, acknowledged, read, published and declared to be the last will and testament of Kinney in our presence who signed in the presence of each other and of the testator.

James M. Nicholson
John Huggins
John Calvin Johnson

Alfred Kinney
mark

Georgia
Clarke County
Court of Ordinary of said County Regular term 5th March 1883.
Personally appeared in open Court John Huggins one of the subscribing witnesses to the within and foregoing will of Alfred Kinney late of said County deceased who on oath said that he saw said deceased sign and read said will and heard him acknowledge the same to be his last will and testament that he done so freely and voluntarily of his own free will and accord without any compulsion or persuasion in the least of any other person or persons and that at the time of so doing said testator was of sound mind disposing mind and memory that he deposed to the contents of the will and and John Calvin Johnson signed the same as witnesses in the presence of each other and of the Dictator and at his request.

Sworn to and subscribed before me } John H. Higgins as at M Jackson }
Ordinary B }

It is upon it is considered, ordered and adjudge by this Court that said will is in common form of law fully proved, to be the true last will and testament of said Alford Quincy Applegate and that the same together with the probate thereof be recorded in the of the law. Regular Term 8th March 1883.
Wm M Jackson
Ordinary