

In the name of God Amen, I, Edward Wane of the county of Clatsop, State of Georgia, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, and being desirous to settle my worldly affairs, while I have strength to do so, Do make and publish this my last will and testament.

- 1st I commit my soul to the God who gave it, and my body I desire buried in the family burying ground. My worldly estate I dispose of as follows.
- 2^d I will and bequeath unto my wife Margaret E. Wane, my house and lot in the town of Athens, together with the furniture, carriage and horse, and one hundred shares of the capital stock of the Georgia Rail Road company, to have and to hold during her natural life, and at her death to be equally divided among our children share and share alike, as hereafter provided. I empower my said wife at her discretion to sell any part of the property bequeathed to her in this term, and to reinvest the proceeds, which reinvestment shall be subject to the same disposition as the original property, and this disposition is in lieu of dower.
- 3^d The rest of my property, real and personal, I desire divided into six equal parts, one of which equal parts I give and bequeath unto my wife Margaret E. Wane to do with as she pleases.
- 4th One of which equal parts I give and bequeath unto my son in law Thomas S. Barnett in trust for the sole use of my daughter Grace A. Barnett, wife of said Thomas S. Barnett for and during her natural life, and after her death to such child or children as she may leave at the time of her death share and share alike, with power to the said Grace A. Barnett to empower the said Thomas S. Barnett by writing under her hand and seal to sell any part or the whole of said trust estate, and to reinvest the proceeds in such other property subject to the above described trust, as he shall deem most for the interest of the said trust estate, and with power to the said Grace A. Barnett if she shall die leaving no child or children at the time of her death, to limit and appoint by her written will and testament property, proven and executed the use of said property as she may see fit. In as much as I have already delivered into the hands of my son in law Thomas S. Barnett forty shares of the Georgia Rail Road Stock together with four thousand dollars of Rail Road bonds my will and desire is that in the distribution of my estate, the said Rail Road Stock and bonds shall be considered as an advancement to 5^d his wife. One of which equal parts I give and bequeath unto my son in law Leon H. Charbonnier in trust for the sole use of my daughter Mary E. Charbonnier, wife of the said Leon H. Charbonnier for and during her natural life, and after her death to such child or children as she may leave at the time of her death, share and share alike, with power to the said Mary E. Charbonnier to empower the said Leon H. Charbonnier, by writing under her hand and seal to sell any part or the whole of said trust estate, and to reinvest the proceeds in such other property subject to the above described trust as he shall deem most for the interest of said trust estate, and with power to the said Mary E. Charbonnier, if she shall die leaving no child or children at the time of her death to limit and appoint by her written will and testament property, proven and executed the use of said property as she may see fit. In as much as I have already delivered into the hands of my son in law Leon H. Charbonnier a house and lot in the town of Athens, lately purchased by me from Jos. S. Claghorn for the sum of thirty six hundred dollars together with five shares of the capital stock of the Georgia Rail Road and four thousand dollars in Rail Road Bonds my will and desire is, that in the distribution of my estate, the said house and lot, stock and bonds shall be considered as an advancement to his wife.

6th I will and bequeath unto my son William S. Ward one of such equal parts to do with as he pleases my will and desire is, that the place on which he now lives in Campbell county together with the stock thereon shall be accounted for by the said William S. Ware in the settlement of my estate at the sum of six thousand dollars, which amount shall be a portion of his share.

7th I will and bequeath unto my daughter Lucy W. Gray, one of such equal parts to do with as she pleases.

8th I will and bequeath unto my son Edward H. Ware one of such equal parts to do with as he pleases.

I appoint my wife Margaret E. Ware my son-in-law Thomas S. Barrett, and my son Edward H. Ware executor and executrix of this my last will and testament.

In witness whereof I, the said Edward H. Ware, have to this my last will and testament, set my hand and seal, this the 2nd day of May 1867.

signed, sealed, published and declared in presence of us who signed the same as witnesses in the presence of Edward H. Ware, at his request, and in presence of each other.
