

I Henry Jennings do hereby make this my last Will and Testament, thereby revoking and annulling all other Wills by me heretofore at any time made,

I Give and bequeath to my beloved Wife Nancy Jennings all my Estate both Real and Personal to be held and enjoyed by her during her Natural Life and thereafter,

I Give and bequeath to my Children the Remainder of all my Estate both Real and Personal after the decease of my said Wife to be divided among them all equally, my Children living I give to them severally that they use during their natural Lives until to their Children after their death, not subject to their Contracts or to their Creditors Debts,

I do now and then sell and do ever remain to my Wife and I hereby direct that my said Estate both Real and Personal be immediately divided among my Children according to the above provision except One Hundred Dollars which is all that I have to my said Wife in case of her marriage.

I Give to each of my Children when they come of age or married a Good Wife and Middle, Cow and Calf each and one Quarter to be taken out of my Estate by the Executors.

I Give my said Wife leave to trade any property in the interest of the Estate provided the value thereof is retained in the Estate or divided among my said Children, but whatever sale of property shall be made must be made jointly by my Wife and Executors.

I hereby appoint my beloved Wife Nancy Jennings my Executor and from and after her death I appoint my said Executors and Executors to this my last Will and Testament.

I hereby authorize my said Executors and Executors to carry in, this my last Will and Testament as to this fully established by the Court, without giving Bond.

If either of my said Executors die before the execution of this Will or refuse to qualify, I wish another to be appointed by the Court to

