

Georgia
Clarke County

In the name of God: Amen.

I, James Junkin Harrison of the said State and County, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, and being impressed with the uncertainty of human life, do make and publish this, my last will and Testament, hereby revoking all wills by me at any time hitherto made. And first I commit my my soul to God who gave it, and my body to the dust from whence it sprung.

Item 1st

I do hereby give, devise and bequeath all the estate, both real and personal of which I may die seized or possessed to my beloved aunt, Pranceina Elizabeth Greer, (relict of John C. Greer late of said County deceased,) and her son John Thomas Greer, for their mutual benefit and enjoyment during their two lives; and at the death of either, the said estate to go to the survivor, forever, in fee simple. And all that I may inherit from the estate of my deceased brother, Alonzo Tyler Harrison, both real and personal, I also give bequeath, and devise to my aunt Pranceina Elizabeth Greer and her son John Thomas Greer in manner and form of the first bequest.

I also nominate and appoint my Aunt Pranceina Elizabeth Greer and her son John Thomas Greer my Executors of this my last Will and Testament.

In witness whereof I, the said James Junkin Harrison, to this my will, have set my hand and seal the fourth day of September 1861.

Jas. Harrison

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the above named James Junkin Harrison, as his last Will and Testament in presence of us who at his request, in presence of each other have subscribed our names as witnesses hereto.

N. L. Barnard, of Clarke Co. —

Georgia Court of Ordinary of said County, Regular Clarke County Term 6th July 1868.

Personally appeared in open Court Nathaniel L. Barnard one of the subscribing witnesses to the within and foregoing Will of James J. Harrison late of the State of Texas Deceased, who on oath swears that he saw said Deceased sign and seal said instrument and heard him acknowledge the same to be his last Will and Testament that at the time of so doing he, the Testator was of sound and disposing mind and memory, that he, affiant, George M. King, and Lucas H. Sampkins both now deceased signed the same as witnesses in the presence of each other of the Testator and at his Request.

Item 2nd subscribed in open Court, (W. M. Jackson Ordinary, N. L. Barnard.

And now at this term of the Court no cause being shown or appearing to the contrary, It is Ordered and adjudged by the Court that the within and foregoing instrument purporting to be the last will and Testament of the within named James Junkin Harrison Deceased his true last Will and Testament and that the same together with the probate thereof be Recorded in terms of the last Regular Term 3rd August 1868.

W. M. Jackson Ordinary,

Recd. 6th Aug. 1868
