

I Susan Gidding, Widow of the Town of Altamont and County of Clarke, and State of Georgia, do make and publish this my last Will and Testament here by writing, and for my Wills by me, any time here before made. And I direct that my body be decently interred in some Cemetery in said town according to the rules of the Presbyterian Church, and that my funeral be conducted, suitably to my condition of life; and as to such worldly Estate, as I have entrusted to me, I dispose of the same as follows: I direct that my debts and funeral expenses, be paid as soon as possible, after my decease, out of the first money that shall come into the hands of my Executors, from any part of my estate. I give and bequeath to my two eldest daughters, Mary C. Pinton and Susan Gidding, formerly Susan Gidding, and their heirs, all my books, pictures and silver plate, shawls and shawls alike as they may agree, and if they fail to agree, then my Executors, shall divide the same equally between them.

By the laws of Georgia, my Grand daughter, Mary C. Pinton, will control her own Estate, and I wish all I give her, to be for her sole and separate use, and the same for my Grand daughter Susan Gidding of Mississippi. I desire what I give her to be free from the debts and Entails of her father or any former husband.

I give and devise to my said Grand daughter, Mary C. Pinton, and her heirs, the house and lot where I reside in the corner of Dougherty, and Remington streets containing one acre and a half or less, in fee simple.

I give and bequeath to my said Grand daughter, Susan Gidding, called Hunter, in honor of her Aunt my daughter Sarah R. Hunter, the sum of one thousand dollars to aid her in her education, and in the event of her death before consummating said thousand dollars, then the same, or what may be unconsumed at her death, I desire to be equally divided between my said two Grand daughters. I give and bequeath, the net and residue of my estate of whatever character, consisting mainly of Rail Road Bonds, Rail Road stocks, and so forth, in or to Mrs. J. Pinton, and my household and kitchen furniture and everything else I own, to my said Grand daughter, Mary C. Pinton, and Susan Gidding and their heirs, in fee simple, but the one thousand dollars hereby given to Hunter Gidding is to be paid alone from the fragments of said if uncollected at my death. My will is that in case either or both of my

Codicil to my last Will and Testament

Since publishing the foregoing Will I have taken a house and lot in Adams St. in the city of the judgment on the 1st of S. Gelling and in payment of the same and now substitute said house and lot in place of the judgment, and also and assign my said Bond, daughters, Mary C. Gelling and their heirs in fee simple the tract of land, bought of Mrs. J. Gelling, March 6 1843, and conveyed to me on that day, situate in the city of Adams, Adams and State of Georgia, in College, Adams, and known as part of lot no 6, being 25 feet front on said Adams, and running 87 1/2 feet back to the plank fence, as it stood in March 1843, bounded north by M. Myers, East by said Adams, South & West by the old Norton house lot, this being designed to convey title to the store and premises occupied by M. Myers lately before said last mentioned date, with the privilege of passing to the upper story, as conveyed in the deed, from E. L. Norton to Myers, this deed being in the same property described in Norton and the said Gelling and in Gelling and to me.
 And as to the thousands dollars charged in the judgment aforesaid, now paid off I direct it to remain as a charge upon my said Will estate, and to be paid as provided in my said Will dated 10th July 1842
 Signed, sealed and published as a Codicil to my last Will and Testament in presence of A. G. Gelling, who have attested the same in his presence and in the presence of each other.
