

Georgia The Last Will & Testament
of William W. Carr.

I, William W. Carr of the town of Athens, in the County of Clayton, State of Georgia, being of sound mind and disposing memory and well knowing the uncertainty of life & the certainty of death & whilst in health and in the full enjoyment and possession of all my faculties make, ordain and establish this instrument, all in my own hand writing to be my last will & testament hereby revoking all others which I have heretofore made.

- Article 1st My Will & desire is that all my just debts (which are very few) be paid by my executors hereinafter named from the proceeds of my estate.
- 2^d I give & bequeath to my daughter Florida C. Carr the house & lot No 99 on the west side of the street fronting my dwelling (which said street I call Carr Street) containing one acre and my sold lot No 110 in the 3^d district of Rabun County containing four hundred & ninety acres more or less, known as the lot Humphill settled on, this together with what I have heretofore given her will make her equal with what I have given my three sons Thomas, William and Elijah each.
- 14th My Will & desire is that my beloved wife Jane Carr & my daughter Florida W. Carr be permitted to remain & occupy undisturbed & free of rent my dwelling & the improvements around the same in the rock wall and the lots fenced adjoining & near thereto during the life time of my said wife Jane and Daughter Florida.
- 5th My Will & Desire is that all the rest & residue of my estate of whatever it may consist be equally divided into five equal parts & portions to be given to my wife Jane Carr to be by her enjoyed during her natural life and to be by her disposed of among my children and grand children as she may desire.
- 6th The other four portions to be given one to my son Thomas W. Carr, one portion to my son Elijah W. Carr, one portion to my daughter Florida C. Carr and one portion to my two little grand children Mary Bryant Thomas and Susan Agnes Thomas the children of my dear departed daughter Susan that was the wife of John E. Thomas, which said grant shall then I have raised & feel as much attached to them as I do to mine own children and in their portion is to be the Overstreet tract of land in Seminole County Florida containing the hundred & forty acres which said tract of land I have already conveyed to my son Thomas W. Carr in trust for the said Mary Bryant & Susan Agness Thomas.

7th I my ungrateful, unnatural & unkind son William W. Carr I give his note, which I hold for one hundred dollars that with what I have heretofore given him, is all I intend him to have of my estate for his ungrateful & unkind treatment to me during the years of 1866 and 1867.

8th Lastly I constitute and appoint my beloved wife Jane Carr executrix of my son Thomas W. Carr and my friends Albion P. Dearing, Francis Capps & John Capps executors of this my last will and testament.
