Exekial Atkedge

Codicil to the last Will Testament of Exekial Atkedge

In that third Clause of my former Will I have appointed to my Executors my Son for the use of my Daughter Caudy, Virgil and her Heirs that I should of land in said County therein described, more for the purpose of disposing more distinctly the same of said Land I have thought it best that this Clause should read in this manner as regards that said Land & beginning at a Post Rock running thence along the northwesterly corner to a Post Rock corner to the

It is further my Will that out of the property bequeathed in the third Clause of my foregoing Will & Testament to my Executors and Assigns the use of my Daughter Candy Daniel this Childman at different times be deducted by my said Executors to defray all Cost and Charges of any law suit brought in pursuance of the bequest of any sum which may be obtained as hereuntofore before obtained by Candy Daniel the Wife of my Daughter Candy against my son Virgil W. Alexander or by John Doty by my said son. It is my wish that the sixth Clause of my foregoing Will be revoked and annulled so far as said Clause relates to the bequest of One hundred Dollars to my two Grand Sons, Richard C. Major and Cyril M. Major and I give to my said two Grand Sons in lieu thereof the sum of Five dollars each. It is also my Will and desire that the seventh Clause of my foregoing Will & Testament which I have bequeathed the sum of One Hundred Dollars to the three of my said Grand Sons to be equally divided among them, be revoked & annulled and I give to the three of my said Grand Sons instead thereof the sum of Five Dollars to be equally divided among them. I doubtless may arise as to the portion of bequest stating my said Virgil W. Alexander may be entitled to under my foregoing Will & Testament for the purpose of dividing the same. I do declare that it is my wish that my said son have the tract whereon

I now live and all other Tracts which my foregoing Will disposed of him and his heirs and assigns of lands and also other Tract or parcels of land lying in the County of Clarke and in the State of Kentucky and in my said Will and desire that my 10th Clause of my foregoing Will I have directed an agent to do things that I have
