

Virginia. In the name of God (more confidently) I then to the same subject with the uncertainty of his, but being assured and depending upon what I have to write I dares and declare this to be my last, Well and Pleasantly, and so I am, Yours

[illegible]

Dear Sir, I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 11th inst. and in reply to inform you that the same has been forwarded to the proper authorities for their consideration. I am, Sir, very respectfully, Yours, &c.
 J. C. Smith

Personally appeared in open Court Judge John Thompson one of the witnesses to the within Will of John D. Thompson late of said County Decedent who in oath swears that he saw said Decedent sign and seal said instrument and heard him acknowledge the same to the last Will and Testament, this at the time of said Decedent's so doing. The said Testator was of sound and disposing mind and memory at that time and the same as written in the foregoing foregoing Obedient Affidavit of said and also of the Testator and at his request, and also saw said Robert C. Holland sign the same as witness to the foregoing of each other and of the Testator and at his request.
