

Agreement between the Heirs of John B. Brockman deceased

Georgia
Cobb County

Articles of an agreement made and entered into between Reuben Harrison of the one part and Elizabeth W. Watson the Heir of James P. Brockman Mary Ann Hicks. Elizabeth Johnson wife of John A. Johnson of the other part witness-eth that the two of the 1st part of Edm. Brockman L.P. Harrison assigned and to sell the Estate of J. B. Brockman as soon as practicable and divide it equally between Mrs E.M. Brockman L.P. Harrison E.W. Watson James P. Brockman
M.A. Hicks E.J. Johnson wife of John A. Johnson with the exception of several horse & buggy and harness 1 feather bed 4 bed quilts & counterpane and other articles as may be asked to be given to Mrs E.M. Brockman wife of said deceased.

And the undersigned all agree that John A. Johnson and L.P. Harrison still go on with the Estate of Executors and sell said property at public sale as they

The further
 I go, the more I find of the same things, and the more I find of the same things,