

Thomas C. Clay's
Will.

585

Georgia, Cobb County:

I, Thomas C. Clay being of sound and disposing mind and memory do make this my last Will and Testament.

I give and bequeath unto my beloved wife all of my property of every description, for and during her natural life or widowhood.

After my marriage or death I direct my Executor to first pay my son, W. C. Clay one hundred Dollars, then the balance of my estate shall be equally divided among my children, where any of my children may have died before the execution of this will or may die after the execution of this will leaving a child or children then such child or children shall take his or her deceased parents share.

I authorize and direct my executor to sell all of my property at either private or public sale and without any order of Court as may be may deem best - after my wife's marriage or death.

I appoint my son Jasper Clay as my Executor to carry out this my last will and testament.
This Nov. 7 - 1892.
Thomas C. Clay

Signed, declared and published by Thos. C. Clay, as his last Will and Testament, in the presence of us the subscribers, who subscribe our names hereto in the presence of testator at his instance and request and of each other, he signing in our presence and we signing in his presence.
