

Georgia, Cobb County.

To the Hon. J. W. Gann, Ordinary of said County:

The Petition of Campbell Wallace, as Administrator of the estate of Francis Adams, late of said county, deceased, sheweth:

That the real estate of said deceased consists of a one-half undivided interest in a certain house and lot in the City of Athens, said County, situated on Cherokee Street in said City, was known as the Miller-Singer House place, bounded on the North by property of the said Adams, East by Cherokee Street, South by Mary Adams Hill, and West by property of W. A. Worley and heirs; and that for the purpose of paying debts and distribution, it is necessary to sell said lands.

WHEREFORE, petitioner prays for an order of citation, and that citation issue calling upon the creditors and heirs at law of said Francis Adams, to be and appear at the May Term, 1920, of the Court of Ordinary of Cobb County, to show cause, if any they have, why the leave to sell said lands should not be had and allowed.
