Mongin Smith's Will.

In the name of God - Amen.

I, Mongin Smith of the county of Cobb, in the State of Georgia, being in feeble health, but of sound and disposing mind and memory, and knowing the uncertainty of human life, and the certainty of death, and being desirous of disposing of my worldly affairs, while I have sufficient strength and capacity, do make and publish this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all former Wills and Testaments I may have at any time heretofore made.

And first of all, I give my soul to God, who first-gave it to me, and my body to be interred under the directions of my friends; and as for what worldly goods and possessions God has been pleased to entrust me with, I dispose of them as follows:

It is my will that my funeral expenses together with all my just debts, be paid as early after my death as may be practicable.

I will and bequeath unto my nieces, Elizabeth Patton Phillips, Catharine Anna Phillips, and Bessie Phillips, and to my nephew James Mongin Smith, each twenty five dollars.
