In the Court of Ordinary of said County.

The petition of J. B. Green and Robert B. Turner, as administrators on the estate of John O. Allen, late of said county, deceased, shew that the estate of said deceased consists in part of certain personal properties, including one mule, one two-horse wagon, farming tools and implements including one McCormick mower and rake, certain farm products as fodder, cotton seed, eleven head of hogs and other small articles about the premises of said deceased. That said properties are perishable and that it is necessary that they be sold for the purpose of payment of debts of the deceased and the distribution among the heirs of said deceased, and they therefore present this their petition and pray an order authorizing and empowering them to sell the personal properties belonging to the estate of said deceased as provided by law.

Application for letters of administration.

And now at said term of the court comes J. C. Allen and requests the granting of letters of administration by the court to J. C. Allen, the applicant, on the estate of John C. Allen, deceased, and for grounds of request says:-

1st. Because the said J. C. Allen is not entitled to such administration under the statute of distribution for that the executor J. C. Allen has been selected by a majority of those interested as distributees of the estate and who are capable of expressing a choice as will appear from the writings hereto attached and marked exhibits A, B and C. This executor stands in the degree of kinship to the deceased equal with the applicant and having been selected by a majority of those interested he avers that he is entitled to said administration.

Wherefore this executor prays that the court will appoint him administrator on said estate of said John C. Allen deceased, and he will ever pray.
