Georgia Cobb County:- of said Stone Ordinary The petition of W. P. Day shows that he is the husband of Mrs Melissa Adams a lunatic that it is necessary and has been necessary to spend some funds for her use and benefit - she having been confined in the Lunatic Asylum of this State, and being allowed to come home and visit her children and her family, and then she became so insane and unmanageable that it was necessary to send her back to the said Asylum all of which cost a considerable sum in the way of expenses to and from the Asylum and for clothing, medical attention &c. amounting to $5000 or more - Whereupon Your Petitioner asks that he be allowed to encroach on the corpus of the estate of the said Melissa Adams to the

Georgia, Cobb County.

To Hon. John Rutledge, Ordinary of said County.

I hereby tender my resignation as Guardian of Melissa Adams, a Lunatic Confined in the State Sanitarium, and recommend that John T. James be appointed to said trust. My reason for resigning is that I am desiring to remove from said State.
This Nov. 2nd, 1903. W. P. Blay.

I hereby signify my willingness to accept the Guardianship of Melissa Adams if appointed.
J. T. James.

Cobb Court of Ordinary.
Nov. Term 1903.

W. P. Blay, Guardian of Melissa Adams, a Lunatic Confined in State Sanita-tarium, having tendered his resignation of said trust, and having recommended J. T. James be appointed in his stead, and said James having signified his acceptance of said trust, and the heirs of said Melissa Adams having been duly served according to law; and said W. P. Blay having tendered in Court a full settlement of the entire estate of said Melissa Adams with the said James, Therefore ordered, that the said W. P. Blay
