

Mongin Smith's Will.

In the name of God - Amen.

I, Mongin Smith, of the county of Cobb, in the State of Georgia, being in feeble health, but of sound and disposing mind and memory, and knowing the uncertainty of human life, and the certainty of death, and being desirous of disposing of my worldly affairs while I have sufficient strength and capacity, do make and publish this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all former Wills and Testaments I may have at any time heretofore made.

And first of all, I give my soul to God, who first gave it to me, and my body to be interred under the directions of my friends, and as for what worldly goods and possessions God has been pleased to entrust me with, I dispose of them as follows:

It is my will that my funeral expenses together with all my just debts, be paid as early after my death as may be practicable.

I will and bequeath unto my nieces Elizabeth Patton Phillips, Catharine Anna Phillips, and Bevie Phillips, and to my nephew James Mongin Smith, each, twenty five dollars.

I will and bequeath unto my sister, Laura Margaret Smith all the remainder of my estate and property, of every kind and description, a large portion of which consists of about six thousand dollars worth of the stock or bonds of the North Western Rail Road Company in the State of Georgia; and my interest of every description in the property and estate, to in law and equity, I may be entitled to. If my mother's

I will and bequeath unto my sister, Laura Margaret Smith, all the remainder of my estate and property, of every kind and description, a large portion of which is now in the hands of the South Western Rail Road Company, in the State of Georgia, and all my interest of every description in the property and estate of every kind hereby willed and bequeathed to my said sister, Laura Margaret Smith, shall be held and enjoyed by her as her own separate property and estate, not subject to the debts, liabilities, contracts or control of any of my husband and she may at any time hereafter marry. And in case I should die without leaving a child or children surviving, then I will and bequeath (after the death of my said sister, Laura Margaret) all of the property, money and estate hereby willed to her, to be equally divided between the grandchildren of my father, James Morgan Smith, deceased, and otherwise.

I hereby nominate and appoint my friends, Richard Cuyler, George R. Cuyler, and Mrs Laura M. Smith, my Executors to this my last Will and Testament.

Witness my hand and seal, the seventh day of June,

1864. The above and foregoing was signed, sealed, published and declared by the said Morgan Smith, in our presence, to be his last Will and Testament; and each of us, in the presence of each other, and also in the presence and at the special instance and request of the said Morgan Smith, have hereto subscribed our names as attesting witnesses to the execution thereof, this 7th day of June, A.D. 1864.
