 I have not yet received your letter of the 10th inst. and am sorry to hear that you are not well. I hope you will soon be able to write again. I am well and hope to hear from you soon.

Dear Mother
I have been thinking much lately about you and how I am getting old. I feel as if I have reached the end of my journey. I have lived a long life, but I still have many things I want to do. I want to see you all again, and I want to tell you how much I love you. I hope you are all well and happy. I am always thinking of you and praying for you.

Your affectionate son,
John Smith

Count of Ordinary. In Vacation June 18.

[Faint handwritten notes, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]

I shall have no objection to the loan of the book to you if you will send it back to me as soon as you can.

Yours truly,
J. R. Campbell

[illegible]

Court of Ordinary July Regular Term 1847

[illegible]

My dear Mr. Garrison
I have just received your letter of the 11th inst. and am glad to hear that you are so interested in the cause of the colored people. I am sure that your efforts will be successful in securing for them the same rights and privileges which are enjoyed by the white race. I am, Sir, very respectfully,
Yours for the oppressed,
Wm. L. Chapin
