

George W. Glore,
deceased.

12 Cost of Clothing - Regular Term December

[illegible][illegible]

And I solemnly declare that the contents of this last will and testament of George are true and believe that I will not 1811

 I have been thinking of you very much lately, and wondering how you are getting on. I hope you are well and happy. I have been very busy lately, but I have managed to find some time to write to you.
 I have been thinking of you very much lately, and
 wondering how you are getting on. I hope you are well and happy. I have been very busy lately, but I have managed to find some time to write to you.

[illegible][illegible]

Dear Mother, We do solemnly swear that I will be a good, obedient, and true son as far as I am able, and that I will well and truly serve you in all and every the good and chaste, right and lawful of my body, and pay all the just debt as far as I am able and the law charges me, and that I will make the and perfect knowledge of all and singular the good and chaste, right and lawful of my body, soul, and estate, a law, and a perfect return thereof as required of me, so help us God.
Witness my hand and seal.
John Smith, Son.

W. B. Reed and S. H. Reed being under an of the Court, if necessary, would then take, with out, and be bound to pay the said, without any before the estate of Donald Reed, deceased, which security is duly approved by the Court, and be taken and entered to the said approved by the the order of the Court, that either of them

