

Whereas it has been represented to the Court that the...
...of the Court...
...of the Court...
...of the Court...

And it is extremely proper that the Court should...
...of the Court...
...of the Court...
...of the Court...

It appearing to the Court that an inventory and...
...of the Court...
...of the Court...
...of the Court...

November 29, 1866. J. Campbell, Ordinary.

Upon the application of Sarah Ann Kennedy, co-defendant...
...of the Court...
...of the Court...
...of the Court...

November 29, 1866. J. Campbell, Ordinary.

Whereas it has been represented to the Court that the...
...of the Court...
...of the Court...
...of the Court...

And it is extremely proper that the Court should...
...of the Court...
...of the Court...
...of the Court...

It appearing to the Court that an inventory and...
...of the Court...
...of the Court...
...of the Court...

November 29, 1866. J. Campbell, Ordinary.

Whereas it has been represented to the Court that the...
...of the Court...
...of the Court...
...of the Court...

And it is extremely proper that the Court should...
...of the Court...
...of the Court...
...of the Court...

It appearing to the Court that an inventory and...
...of the Court...
...of the Court...
...of the Court...

November 29, 1866. J. Campbell, Ordinary.

County of Cumberland
 August 18th 1867
 In the County of Cumberland, State of Maryland, before me, the undersigned, a Justice of the Peace, personally appeared John Campbell, who being duly sworn, deposes and says that he is the owner of the following described land, to-wit:

One acre of land, situated in the County of Cumberland, State of Maryland, and bounded as follows: on the north by the land of John Campbell, on the south by the land of John Campbell, on the east by the land of John Campbell, and on the west by the land of John Campbell.

John Campbell, Esq.

And he further deposes and says that he is the owner of the following described land, to-wit: One acre of land, situated in the County of Cumberland, State of Maryland, and bounded as follows: on the north by the land of John Campbell, on the south by the land of John Campbell, on the east by the land of John Campbell, and on the west by the land of John Campbell.

John Campbell, Esq.

And he further deposes and says that he is the owner of the following described land, to-wit: One acre of land, situated in the County of Cumberland, State of Maryland, and bounded as follows: on the north by the land of John Campbell, on the south by the land of John Campbell, on the east by the land of John Campbell, and on the west by the land of John Campbell.

John Campbell, Esq.

And he further deposes and says that he is the owner of the following described land, to-wit: One acre of land, situated in the County of Cumberland, State of Maryland, and bounded as follows: on the north by the land of John Campbell, on the south by the land of John Campbell, on the east by the land of John Campbell, and on the west by the land of John Campbell.

John Campbell, Esq.

August 18th 1867

County of Cumberland
 August 18th 1867
 In the County of Cumberland, State of Maryland, before me, the undersigned, a Justice of the Peace, personally appeared John Campbell, who being duly sworn, deposes and says that he is the owner of the following described land, to-wit:

One acre of land, situated in the County of Cumberland, State of Maryland, and bounded as follows: on the north by the land of John Campbell, on the south by the land of John Campbell, on the east by the land of John Campbell, and on the west by the land of John Campbell.

John Campbell, Esq.

And he further deposes and says that he is the owner of the following described land, to-wit: One acre of land, situated in the County of Cumberland, State of Maryland, and bounded as follows: on the north by the land of John Campbell, on the south by the land of John Campbell, on the east by the land of John Campbell, and on the west by the land of John Campbell.

John Campbell, Esq.

And he further deposes and says that he is the owner of the following described land, to-wit: One acre of land, situated in the County of Cumberland, State of Maryland, and bounded as follows: on the north by the land of John Campbell, on the south by the land of John Campbell, on the east by the land of John Campbell, and on the west by the land of John Campbell.

John Campbell, Esq.

August 18th 1867