Just of Ordinary - In Vacation December 2, 1865

It appearing to the Court that an inventory and appraisal has been made of the goods and chattels, rights and interests of Robert M. Campbell, of both real and personal property, subject to writs or orders, that it will be to the interest and advantage of his heirs and creditors of said deceased to have all personal property of said deceased sold at the shortest period. It is therefore ordered, that the Executors of the last Will of said deceased, Robert M. Campbell, authorized and empowered to sell his personal property of said Robert M. Campbell, within at least ten days publication of the sale to take or more appropriate public place, in and to
