

I have been thinking of you very much lately, and wondering how you are getting on. I hope you are well and happy. I have been very busy lately, but I have managed to find some time to write to you.
 I have been thinking of you very much lately, and
 wondering how you are getting on. I hope you are well and happy. I have been very busy lately, but I have managed to find some time to write to you.
 I have been thinking of you very much lately, and
 wondering how you are getting on. I hope you are well and happy. I have been very busy lately, but I have managed to find some time to write to you.

[illegible][illegible][illegible][illegible][illegible]

With - I do solemnly swear that I will serve and defend a Union as far as I have and that I will well and truly observe the Oath as the people and the right and conscience of the people of the State of Ohio and the law charges me and that I will [Faint handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]

I am very glad to hear of your success in the study of the French and Spanish languages. I hope you will continue to improve and that you will be able to converse with confidence. I am sure you will be able to do so. I am very glad to hear of your success in the study of the French and Spanish languages. I hope you will continue to improve and that you will be able to converse with confidence.
I am sure you will be able to do so.

[illegible]

The foregoing is the true and correct copy of the original as the same was presented to the Senate for their consideration and approval.
 Passed at the Senate Chamber, New York, this 15th day of January, 1845.
 J. R. VAN RENSSELAER, Secretary.

[illegible]

Dear - We are extremely sorry that the instrument we is the last full birth and that we are all suffering is as far as we know a fatal one. But we will do our best to make it passing fast. The last night we were at home in such a state that we will make a last and perfect surrender of the state of the mind and will return the body as required by the law of the state.
 What a blessing is that to the state.

The last will and Testament of John Bellinger deceased last named having been produced and read as before this court John D. Bellinger and Alfred E. Bellinger having been and appearing in and with title as Executors and they have and have laid the will required by law. It is therefore by the Court that the said John D. Bellinger as Executor of the said and his duly nominated Executor of said last and Testament assets shall deliver out of the same to said Creditors. And it is also ordered that John D. Bellinger as Executor, Henry Smith, the 1st Trustee and Joseph C. Smith they are duly appointed Executors and Trustee of said last will and Testament.

W. H. Smith

14. 1866.