

Robert H. Pickins,
deceased.

and will not be able to do so as I know or believe [illegible]

I have been thinking much lately about you, and how much I have enjoyed your visit, and how much I have enjoyed your company. I am very glad to hear that you are well, and hope you will continue so.
I am very glad to hear that you are well, and hope you will continue so. I am very glad to hear that you are well, and hope you will continue so. I am very glad to hear that you are well, and hope you will continue so.

Yours truly,
Wm. Brewster

Court of Ordinary - In Vacation August 5th 1866

It appearing to the Court, that an inventory and appraisal has been made of the goods and chattels real and personal, claimed by the said deceased, and it further appearing to the Court, that the said deceased person at the time of his death, was not sane, and that it would be to the interest of the heirs at law, of said deceased, to have said personal property, in the shortest legal period, sold, therefore, it is ordered by the Court, that the said Administrator upon the estate of said deceased, do and he can do as he lawfully may, to sell, all the personal property of said deceased, after paying at least ten (10) per cent public notice of the same, at three or more public places in each county with ample time intervening.

It appearing to the Court, that an inventory apparentment had been made of the goods and effects and contents of Robert R. Perkins deceased, and he appearing that the deceased has left considerable property subject to waste or loss and that it will be advisable to have such portion of said deceased to be personal property sold at the shortest legal period, the Court, by the Court, directs to the Executors, Administrators or assigns of said R. Perkins deceased, be and he is hereby and empowered all the personal property of said deceased, after paying at least two days public notice thereof, at three or more public places in said county, Wm. Campbell
Ordinary
