We have no doubt, and I think you will agree, that the best of all things is to be able to do as much as possible of good for the world, and to be able to do it in the most efficient manner.
 I am, Sir, very respectfully, Your obedient servant,
 Wm. Lloyd Garrison.

I have already seen that Church & Hall demand more credit & will require as many as before, and that South will probably be able to pay all the bills of the demand and distribute as the law requires and discharge the business of the city as a committee - the rest of the business of the city will be left to the committee.
