

Grand & Catalina - In vacation October 1890

I hereby certify that the above is a true copy of the original as it appears in the records of the Court.

End of Ordinary, - In Vacation, November 2, 1866.

But I do sincerely trust that I shall do soon for [illegible]

Application of George A. Thompson, to the Hon. John A. Campbell, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, for a writ of Habeas Corpus, to remove him from the custody of the United States Marshal at New Orleans, Louisiana, on the ground that he is a citizen of the State of Mississippi, and is entitled to the protection of the laws of that State.

John A. Campbell, Chief Justice

George A. Thompson, Applicant

appearing to the Court that I had been intimidated with the demand for the sale of S. J. Barber's shares.

When the efforts of Miss Mary Anne Wilson first began to be known, she was much opposed, but she was very true and honest, and they are now
very much improved, and she is now
a very good and useful person.
