

Court of Ordinary - In Vacation August 5th 1866

[illegible]

out of Ordinary - In Vacation August 20th

It appearing to the Court, that an account of the inventory had been made of the goods and effects and credits of Robert Ketchum deceased, and it appearing that the deceased has left something of property subject to debts - less and that it will be advisable if the heirs and next of kin deceased to personal property sold at the shortest legal period. The Court, by the Court, that the Ketchum estate is subject to debts & Ketchum deceased, be and he is hereby and empowered all the personal property of said deceased after paying at least ten cents per dollar thereof at three or more public sales in said county
Westbury, N.Y.

July 1st 1867

July 1st 1867

July 1st 1867

July 1st 1867

July 1st 1867

July 1st 1867

July 1st 1867

July 1st 1867

July 1st 1867

July 1st 1867

July 1st 1867

July 1st 1867

July 1st 1867

July 1st 1867

July 1st 1867

July 1st 1867

July 1st 1867

July 1st 1867

July 1st 1867

July 1st 1867

July 1st 1867

July 1st 1867

July 1st 1867

July 1st 1867

July 1st 1867

July 1st 1867

July 1st 1867

July 1st 1867

July 1st 1867

July 1st 1867

July 1st 1867

July 1st 1867

July 1st 1867

July 1st 1867

July 1st 1867

July 1st 1867

July 1st 1867

July 1st 1867

July 1st 1867

July 1st 1867

July 1st 1867

July 1st 1867