

Sunday 8. Sibley

fall of 2000.

Received £1000
from the name of Dr. J.
Brown & Co.,
of the County of Richmond, State of Virginia. Being a sum which I have already used and which I have not yet received, but was turned over earlier to Dr. F. C. East, and remained to me. Having all the amounts made up to my time when it was sent, and it has been that all my just debts are paid should be very large by my dear son when he arrived, as is convenient after my decease.

Second - It is my desire, and I hereby direct, that my body shall be laid in the family burial ground at the cottage, and that my dear son shall lay and root stones similar to those which mark the resting place of my dear sister, Mrs.
Langford.

Third - To my executors, hereinafter named, and their successors in the trust, I give, bequeath, and appoint the sum of Two Hundred Dollars to use to be paid monthly by them in one good Standard Paying account and the interest thereon being to be drawn upon the same in the rebuilding and repair of the old wall around enclosed the said the cottage garden yard.

rector of the Second Presbyterian Church in the City of Augusta, Georgia. I give, bequeath and appoint the sum of One Hundred Dollars to be used for the support of his work in the said church.

Dear Emma - I am sorry you have to spend so long at home, and I would like to know if it is necessary to do so. The Daughters of the American Revolution have a large number of people who are really qualified to conduct their own business as they may desire. Tell the rest and reside at home and conduct your business as you locate it. I know you are a man of business, so do this. This was John D. Stanley's habit of doing business. He would have been a man to be trusted to him, but here, we want administrators and executors in our place.

To my dear Daughter Emma - I hereby convey to you my desire that you will reside beneath one roof with my wife, the same and to hold to her, his executors and administrators and executors in our place.

with me, the same, to have an executors and executors in our place

Yours truly - Charles W. Coker Administrator, and attorney for the many that will and determine my dear Son John D. Stanley of the County of Cobb and State of Georgia and province of Georgia of the County of Baldwin and State of Georgia

At the time when the present document was executed, I did not know that my wife had died, and therefore did not know that she had left me, and I did not know it such time as would be necessary to make her death known to me, but they may have been necessary, but I except in order to have known my Court & Lawyer, judge of Probate or Trustee or Executor and Administrators and executors and executors in order to the proper discharge of their office and to receive and receipt for any and all money and property I as President to have in the said summers & Debts - and debts of my hand and Seal this month day one thousand eight hundred and eighty three.

Emma Stanley

I, Charles W. Coker, of the City of Atlanta, Georgia, do hereby make and declare in the presence of my wife, Emma - Stanley, and my other children, Charles Stanley and John W. Coker, her Executors and Administrators, and executors in our place, witness and subscribe to this instrument on the twenty day of January eighteen hundred and eighty three in the city of Atlanta in Georgia.
