

Sheriff's Sale.

Will be sold at Lincoln court-house on the first Tuesday in October next, between the usual hours,

The Following Property,

—VIZ—

225 acres of Land, more or less, on the waters of Fishing Creek, adjoining Stribley and others, levied upon as the property of Henry G. Walker, to satisfy an execution in favor of Henry Hill, administrator of Thomas Maxwell Deas, vs. said Walker, pointed out by the defendant.

ALSO,

120 acres of Land, more or less, on Fishing Creek, levied upon as the property of Devenport Taylor, to satisfy an execution in favor of John and Samuel Neilson, vs. said Taylor, and pointed out by the defendant.

ALSO,

2600 acres of Land originally granted to Richard Call, and at the time of survey adjoining land of Francis Smith, Samuel Hunter, Jas. Moffett, and a number of others, it being the place whereon James Dunaway now lives.

ALSO,

900 acres on the waters of Soap Creek, originally granted to Richard Call, and at the time of original survey, adjoining Wm. Golden, John Fabar, John Crutchfield, and others, the above land levied upon to satisfy an execution in favor of Lawson Peirce & co. vs. the administrators of Richard Call, and pointed out by the agent of the owner of said execution.

ALSO,

287 acres of Land on the waters of Soap Creek, taken as the property of William Bibb, to satisfy two executions, one in favor of Stovall and Lamar, vs. said Bibb, and one in favor of Gustavus A. Boals, vs. said Bibb.

ALSO,

214 acres of Land on the waters of Soap Creek, taken as the property of John Farrow; to satisfy two executions in favor of Warner L. Kennon, assignee of James Hamrick, levied upon and returned to me by Gibson Blalock, constable.

ALSO,

48 acres of Land, taken as the property of James Hardy, sr. to satisfy an execution in favor of John Standard, vs. said Hardy, levied upon and returned to me by Gibson Blalock, constable.

ALSO,

200 acres of land on the waters of Soap Creek, taken as the property of Peter Trammel, sr. to satisfy an execution in favor of John M. Dooly, levied upon and returned to me by Arnold Zeallnor, constable.

Terms Cash.

Stephen Stovall, D.S.L.C.

August 22

tds