Last Will and Testament of Leavin Causey
I give and bequeath to Julia Manning two acres (2) more or less off of the lot of land I now reside on, my Executor to put a small comfortable house and improvements thereon for her accommodation, this to her during life, and at her death to her children, said lot being the one I have divided up for her.
All the rest and residue of my Estate real or personal wheresoever situate and whether by legacies, I hoping by death or otherwise or in whatever way the same may become a part of my estate, I give and bequeath to my friend James W. Armstrong to his heirs and assigns upon the trusts following, one fourth of the net income of rents and profits, here of negroes and interest of money to the children of my son William Causey Philip may deem best. After their marriage respectively and the births of lawful children to them respectively then to their families respectively, for their comfortable support and maintenance.
My friend James W. Armstrong to keep possession of all of my said property real and personal, and use and control the same in his discretion, and as he may think best, and not to be in any way controlled by my said sons or either of them. The whole I leave to the discretion and good judgment of my said friend James W. Armstrong. At the death of my said sons respectively, I wish him to divide and distribute to the children (lawful) children one fourth share to each family, if any should have no children, then to the surviving children of my other sons & in the event, all my sons should die leaving no children, then to my lawful heirs.
In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand & affixed my seal this 13th day of November 1850
