

My youngest son Felix Commanche has not the years of age at which time my estate to be divided amongst my wife and children before name provided that my son Alfred Commanche shall have no part of my said estate until all my children and wife receive the amount of one hundred dollars after which to have an equal share with the others first paying all my just debts.

I do hereby appoint my wife Fanny Commanche and William H. Hancock of the County of my Executors to do and perform all legal acts touching the execution of the foregoing but if my wife as aforesaid shall die before then and at that time her executors shall still cease and from that time the said executors put in the same manner.
