Territory of West Florida.

In the Name of God. Amen.

I Eader Fairchild of the Territory aforesaid being in possession of perfect disposing mind and memory, and bringing it to my mind, that it is appointed for man once to die - and after that the Judgment. And Whereas it has pleased God to bless me in this life with a wife and children, together with worldly goods and effects of which I would wish to be disposed after my death; First I resign my soul into the hand of my Gracious Creator who gave it to me - and my body to the ground from which it was taken not a doubting, but both soul and body shall re-unite at the great Judgment day, and be Judged according to the deeds done in this body while in this life.

Secondly, I give and bequeath to my beloved son John Thomas Fairchild Two Negroes a man and woman, ^{Decatur County, Georgia Wills 1828-29} ^{www.georgiapioneers.com} of the name of Backus and Betty his wife and one Bay Horse of the name of Paddy with the bridle and Saddle which s^r John now claims; Also five cows and calves to be taken out of the common Stock. . . . Also one Bed and Furniture, to be delivered to him by my Executor after my death to be his full share of my estate.

Thirdly, I leave the following property to be divided in the following. a negro woman by the name of Peggy, and negro Girl of the name of Charlotte, and an other Girl of the name of Jane, both sisters, and a negro boy of the name of Stephen their brother and an other Girl of the name of Amelia, Also a negro woman of the name of Malvena, and a negro man of the name Quash; Together with all the remaining Stock of neat Cattle, Also a certain Bay mare of the name Rozetto. Also the Stock of Hogs, Together with all the remaining beds with their furniture. Also the Household & Kitchen Furniture. I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Mary Fairchild and my beloved Children to wit, James T. Fairchild & Samuel B. Fairchild and Wesley Fairchild in the following order. First I give and bequeath to my wife Mary All the bedding with the Household and Kitchen furniture to be her own in fee simple and the use of all the property named, not otherwise disposed of during her widowhood or till the children shall become of age. I give and bequeath in equal proportion of the whole of the estate last named to be divided between the last named children as they become of age, and should it so happen that either of the Children should die before they should become of age, then his or their part of the estate to go to and be divided among the surviving Children, and should all the last named children die before they become of age then and that case one half of all the Estate shall fall to John F. Fairchild, and the other moiety to be Vested in my beloved wife Mary - but should said wife live single till the said Children are raised or during the State of his Solecacy. I do hereby nominate and appoint ~~him~~ ^{her} the sole Guardian of the Children during the State of their minority and the direction and with the advice of my Executors; but if she marry before the youngest of the Children should arrive to age to act for him or themselves then and in that case my Executors have the Control of the raising and education of the Children. Whereas there is Eight Hundred dollars due in Notes of hand with interest, I will that all my just debts shall be paid out of said money when collected - and all that shall remain of said money after all lawful debts are paid to be let out on interest by my Executors to the best advantage for the sole purpose of Educating and raising the above named minors, and the remaining balance if any left to be equally divided among them when the youngest shall arrive to the age of twenty One year. The above and foregoing Will. I do hereby Constitute and ordain my last Will and Testament, and in order that it be properly Carried into complete effect according to the true intent and meaning thereof I
