Georgia I Sanders L. Douglass Declarator County of the County and State of Georgia being of sound and disposing mind and memory and being desirous to settle my worldly affairs While I have strength so to do, do make and publish this my will and Testament First, I give, at and after my death to my Wife Martha my negro boy Wallace, and the Sum of four thousand Dollars in Cash to be raised as is hereafter provided for in this Will, together with all the property both real and personal which I received by her from her father or of which I may be entitled the inheritance Second, I give at and after my death to my daughter Lilly all the remainder of my property both real and personal, subject to the encumbrances hereafter named and to her heirs forever in fee simple Third, It is my will that my Executors hereafter named shall keep all of my property which is disposed of by the first and second items in this will on the plantation where they now are and work them together for the best advantage of my Wife and Child, and shall furnish them from the proceeds of said farm an annual support and maintenance, and the surplus from year to year if any, shall be paid over to my said Wife, until said surplus shall amount to the sum of four thousand dollars to meet the bequest to her of that sum mentioned in the first item of this Will.
And when my said daughter Lilly arrives of age or marries or at the time the bequest of four thousand to my Wife is fully paid by the annual proceeds of my farm as aforesaid then it is my will that the said property shall be divided according to the first and second items of this will and pass to each as is therein expressed, Fourth, It is my will that my executors immediately after my death shall sell my fourth interest in the Steam Mill owned by Munroe & Douglass and all of my personal property, except my negroes and plantation stock, to the best advantage of my estate, at private or public sale as they may think best, and collect all debts of every kind and description that may be due to me and then pay all of my just debts and the surplus if any, pay to my wife, Martha in discharge of the bequest to her of four thousand dollars as mentioned in the first item of this Will, so far as the said surplus will extend Fifth. I do hereby declare that the bequests and gifts made to my Wife in this Will shall be taken by her in view of her right to dower in my estate.

Sixth. It is my Will that my Executors shall convey to Brother John A. Douglass on half of lot of Land Number two hundred and thirty nine in the twentieth district of said County as the same was purchased with our joint funds and the deed taken in my name. Also to convey to him one fourth interest in the Steam Mill provided the same shall be necessary to protect him in the same. And I hereby appoint L. B. Mills my Executor to this will.

Seventh. I Witness Whereof I the said Samuel G. Douglass have to this my last Will consisting of three pages or sheet of paper set my hand and seal 6th November. 1856.

present on Saturday the Eighth day of November. one thousand Eight hundred and fifty Six at the residence of John Hutchinson a married man. Before and at the time he died. About six hours before his death in perfect possession of his mental faculties he called upon us to remember and take notice of what he was about to say. that it was his desire to make a will. but his feeble situation was considered by us as a barrier to his signing a will. he then consented to make a noncompetition will which reads as follows. That his wife Malinda Hutchinson should have and hold
