

Georgia, Douglas County

I Burrell Malone, of said State, and County, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do make this my last will and testament.

Item I. I desire my body shall be buried in a decent Christian like manner suitable to my condition in life, my soul to God who gave it.

Item II. I direct that all my debts be paid as soon after my death as the same can be conveniently done.

Item 3. Should it be necessary to sell any part of my estate to pay my debts then I direct that my wife sell such part or parts of my estate as can be best spared and most advantageously use to sold for the purpose of paying my debts.

Item 4. Should it be necessary to see any of my estate to pay my estate as before referred to, I direct that my wife sell the same at public or private sale as she may think best without any order from Court of ordinary, authority therefor hereby conferred.

Item 5. I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Catharine J. Malone all the residue of my estate after the payment of my debts, as herein before provided. that is my entire estate both real and personal lands consisting of the North half of lot (704) Seven Hundred and Four in the first district and Third Section of Douglas County, and all of lots (647) Six Hundred and Forty Seven and (739) Seven Hundred and Thirty nine, and West half of (648) Six Hundred and Forty eight of the 18th District and Second Section of now Douglas County and all other lands that I may own at the time of my death, over all personal estate as above named of every kind that I may own at my death including money, notes, accounts, houses, mules, cattle, vehicles, crops, products, and each and every species of personal estate that bequest herein made to my said wife is for, and during her natural life, after her death to be divided as hereafter named in this my will.

Item 6. I direct that my said wife act as Catharine A. Malone, act as executrix of this my will and manage my estate during her natural life.

Item 7. After the death of my said wife I direct that all my estate be sold by my executor hereinafter named and equally divided between all my children share and share alike, and should any of my children be dead at the time of the death of my said wife then I direct that the children "if any" of my deceased children stand in lieu of and take in lieu of their deceased parents.

Item 8. I direct that after the death of my wife that my executor hereinafter named sell all my real estate before the court house door at Douglasville after advertising said sale for four weeks in the news paper in which the Sheriff's sale for the county of Douglas is advertised, over my personal estate to be sold on the premises after posting notices for twenty days at 5 or more public places.

Item 9. I hereby direct that all sales under this will be made without any order from the court of ordinary power therefor hereby conferred on my said executor.

Item 10. I hereby appoint and constitute my son W. L. Malone, executor of this my last will and testament to take charge of and administer my said estate after the death of my said wife Catharine A. Malone.
This the 31st day of March 1906.
Burrell Malone.
