

State of Georgia,
Douglas County;

Last Will and Testament of W. W.

Walden;

I, W. W. Walden, of said State and County, being of sound and disposing mind and memory do make this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all wills heretofore made by me.

Item I.

I wish my executor, as soon as possible after my death to pay my debts if any should exist.

Item II.

I give to my beloved wife (Allie Ann) for her use and benefit during her life, all my personal property of every description, which I may own at the time of my death, and at her death, all of said property at that time remaining, to be equally divided, share and share alike between my three children to wit; Edith J. Mullins, Ellen V. Vansant and Thomas N. Walden.

Item III.

I do hereby constitute my son Thomas N. Walden, executor of this my will.

In Testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand this the 10th day of November 1914.

W. W. Walden.

Signed and published by W. W. Walden, as his last will and testament, in the presence of the undersigned, who subscribe our names hereto as witnesses at the instance and request of said testator, and in the presence and in the presence of each other. This the 10th day of November 1914.
