

Georgia - Douglas County,

I, William C. Davis, of said State and County, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do make this my last will and testament, hereby revoking any and all wills heretofore made by me.

Item I.

I desire my executors hereinafter named, as soon as possible after my death pay my just debts. If a sale of property shall be necessary, I wish them to select for sale that which can be most advantageously used for that purpose; and I authorize them to sell the same at public or private sale as they may see fit.

Item II

I give to my beloved wife, Matilda Davis, all of the property both real and personal, of whatever description that I may die seized and possessed of for and during the term of her natural life.

Item III

Upon the death of my said wife, I desire and direct that all of the property both real and personal, shall be divided equally, share and share alike, between my children, to wit: James Alonzo Davis, William Herschal Davis, Marion Homer Davis, Mrs Lena Lola Stone, Mimmie Estelle Davis, Emma Gertrude Davis, and Lizzie May Davis.

Item IV

Should any of my said children die without issue before the death of my said wife, then and in that event their portions of the estate under this will, shall revert to the estate and be divided equally among the remaining heirs, share and share alike; but should any of my said children die before my said wife leaving issue then and in that event the portion of said decase child or children shall be divided among their issue who shall inherit per stirpes in lieu of their decase parent or parents.

Item V

I do hereby constitute and appoint my two sons, James Alongo Davis and William Herschel Davis, executors of this my last will and testament, confidently expressing the hope that they may well and truly execute the same according to the direction therein given.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand this the 29th day of August A.D. 1904.

William C. Davis (L.S.)

Signed and published by William C. Davis as his last Will and Testament, in the presence of the undersigned, who subscribe our names hento as witnesses at the instance and request of the said testator and in his presence and in the presence of each other. This the 29th day of August A.D. 1904.

S. A. Griffith
J. R. Hutcheson
R. E. Edwards.

Georgia, Douglas County.
