Georgia } In the name of God Amen:
Douglas County } I William J. Kilgore of said State and County, being in feeble health, and knowing that life is uncertain, deem it right and proper both as respects my family and myself, that I shall make a disposition of the property with which a kind Providence blest me with, do therefore make this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all other made by me.

1st Item - I desire that my body be buried in a decent and Christian like manner, suitable to my circumstances in life. My soul I trust shall return to rest with God who gave it.

2nd Item - I desire and direct that all my just debts be paid with as little delay as possible, by my Executor hereinafter named.

3rd Item. I give bequeath and devise to my beloved wife Martha Holt, with whom I have lived for number of years Lot of land No. two hundred and eleven in the Second District and fifth Section Originally Carroll now Douglas County. Provided, that the Trade now on foot shall be consummated. Then that my said Executor take so much of the money, and purchase another place that my wife might select for herself to live upon, and raise my children, and the residue of the money to be put at interest in such a way as Executor and his shall think best for the benefit of her and the minor children until they become of age.

4th Item - I desire that my wife have all of my property.

in her contrall and that she shall send the minor children to school and give them a liberal Education in proportion to those already grown.

5th Item - I desire that my wife keep all my property together and make the best she can until youngest child come of age and then all to have a home with their mother until they marry, and when the youngest becomes of age for to have it sold and divided equally between sister youngest now a living, and shall any of them die, then to be divided among the remainder surviving, a child's part to herself to dispose of as she she should see fit.

6th Item - I further desire and bequeath all the balance of my property, stock and perishable property to her own use in raising the minor children.

7th Item - I further desire that my son William S. Keilgor be my Executor to see to and assist his mother in the management of her effects, and that he be advised and counseled by my trust-worthy friend James Abney, and in case my son should not be found to carry out this my will that the said James Abney act in his stead.
