The Name of God given

This is the last Will and Testament of me, Solomon Wisdom, of the County of Early and State of Georgia. Considering the uncertainty of life, and knowing that all men must die, I do will and direct as follows: I do will and direct, that after my death, my body shall be decently buried according to the forms and usages of the County in which I live.

2 I do nice and direct that all my Just debts be paid as soon as the law will permit, and the same can be done without any necessary expense to my estate.

5 I Give and devise to my dear wife Margaret Wilson, all of the lot or tract of land known as number three hundred and sixty three, in the fifth District of the county of Early, and on which I now live, not already sold, bargained, and disposed of by me, and except such lots, parts and portions of the same as I may sell, bargain, and dispose of during my life - Also one Negro woman slave named Patty, and her five children, Sam, Mary, Ellen, Charles and Salina, and her and their future increase. Also one Mahogany Secretary and Bookcase, one Painted pine Bedstead, Bed and furniture, one painted pine Table, and one painted pine chest. I also give and devise to my said wife, all the residue and remainder of my estate of every kind and description what ever, whether real, personal, or mixed, and whether the same shall consist in lands, shares, stock of any kind, furniture, goods, chattels, notes or accounts which at the time of my death may belong to me, or which I may be interested in or entitled unto. I make this provision for my said wife, because we have no children to provide for, and because for all the worldly goods which I have acquired, she has borne her full share of toil and care, and therefore is more justly entitled to them than any one besides. And I do well and desire it that my Executors place and my estate aforesaid, as soon as the same can be done according to law in the peaceable possession of my said wife Margaret Wilson, and that she shall have the absolute control, management and disposal of the same as to her shall seem meet and proper, and that the same vest in her and her heirs forever.

And I do nominate, constitute and appoint William Castleberry, and William A. Bethea, Executors of this my will.

And, lastly, I do revoke all former will by me made, and do declare this to be my last will and Testament.

In Witness whereof, I have to this my last will, contained on one sheet of paper, set my hand and seal, this first day of January in the year of our Lord 1842.
